CATAMOUNT

WESTERN CAROLINA COLLEGE

CULLOWHEE, NORTH CAROLINA

Dot Payseur, Editor

Ray Medford, Business Manager

A river and a village with Indian names . . . a highway and a bridge . . . a post office . . . and three churches . . . surrounding mountains . . . a campus with buildings as old as Joyner . . . as new as the cafeteria . . . Cullowhee . . . the "hill" . . . Western Carolina College.

The 1959 Catamount is a reflection of one collegiate year out of seventy years-mountain style. This year is marked by continued growth and spirit, by an increased student body, by a larger faculty, and by an extended building program. In addition, such progressive steps as the opening of the Sylva-Balsam Gap highway, completion of the campsite at Lake Glenville, installation of CinemaScope lenses in Hoey Auditorium and Hunter Gallery, the establishment of an Inter-Faith Council, and the initiation of the first national sorority on campus have helped to give our students the physical, mental, and spiritual development that is a pre-requisite to a college education.

DEDICATION

Camper . . . cyclist . . . gardener . . . professor . . . the appellations are too numerous for our own active "Doc" Deans. The versatile, much traveled authority on Joyce, Shakespeare, and Milton is as witty as he is learned. If you visit Rainrock, his home, he will probably set you down (with Danny, the dog, at your feet) and take you on a "voracious return to the heritage."

In recalling over two decades of loyal service to the young people of this institution, the Seniors' choice for dedicatee of the 1959 CATAMOUNT is their deserving class sponsor, MR. ERNEST VICK DEANS, JR.

"Doc" and Danny

PRESIDENT REID

Teacher . . . principal . . . superintendent . . . administrator . . . all levels in the educational scale have felt the services of Paul A. Reid, president of Western Carolina College.

Through Dr. Reid's diplomacy, our institution has expanded far beyond any foreseeable prospects of a decade ago. North Carolinians are proud of their native son and the work that he is doing. In serving the needs of higher education in this region, Western Carolina College has promoted the economic and cultural values of the citizens of Jackson County and its surrounding areas. For his help in this endeavor, we say, "Thank you, President Reid."

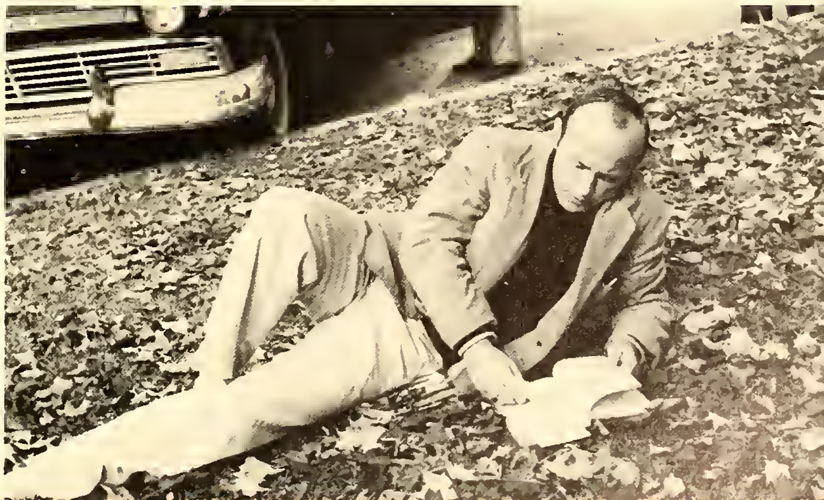
Another registration day.

"Don't break the ice, girls!"

Last minute preparation.



Tony shows 'em how.

The fun of skating.

"This is WWOO, the voice of Western Carolina College."

"Did he really say that?"

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

BOB DEAN	President
EDDIE ALALA	Vice-President
MARIE BROOKS	Secretary
JACK CARPENTER	Treasurer

"Now hear this" on the public address system . . . orientation . . . physical examinations . . . required assembly . . . those beanies again this year . . . how many irregular frosh? . . . new dorm for the boys . . . three to a room for the girls . . . precedent set with the president at his reception . . . registration in Breese Gymnasium . . . longing for mail at the post office . . . rushed by fraternities and sororities . . . and we wonder if we will ever get through college.

ALPHA PHI SIGMA

The Alpha Phi Sigma is an honorary organization with two objectives. The first is to encourage scholarship and the second is to reward scholarship. To become a member of the fraternity, a student must be on the Alpha Honor Roll for five consecutive quarters.

The Alpha Phi Sigma is not a club in the usual sense, but is the Zeta Chapter of the national Alpha Phi Sigma, whose sole purpose is to promote intellectual and scholastic development on the campus.

Each year the fraternity sponsors the Alumni Homecoming Tea.

Delta Gamma Phi was recognized at Western Carolina College in 1958 to become the second social sorority on campus. Its main objectives are to promote scholarship, honesty, and responsibility.

The sorority sponsors various social activities for all students as well as for its members. Last year, Delta Gamma Phi sponsored a dance with the proceeds going to the Cripple Children's Foundation. The sisters of Delta Gamma Phi are very active in extra curricular activities—student government, publications, and various clubs.

In intramurals, the sorority was the field hockey, the speedball, and the volleyball champions. In the Homecoming parade, Delta Gamma Phi's "Anniversary Cake" won first prize in the float division.

The sorority's future plans will be directed toward becoming a member of a national sorority.

Sorority advisors are Miss Josefina Niggli and Mrs. Winnie Murphy Killian.

The Sigma Theta Phi Sorority was initiated as the Gamma Rho Chapter of Sigma Kappa Sorority November 8, 1958.

Sigma Kappa is one of the top five national sororities and is unique among sororities in her New England origin and ancestry. Sigma Kappa was in the beginning what she is now—an organization of college women to promote high scholarship and intellectual life among its women.

The Gamma Rho's activities, besides pledging and initiating, have included: sponsorship of a free campus dance, Christmas party for members and pledges, and a gerentology program.

Gamma Tau Fraternity was founded on October 7, 1957. Gamma Tau strives to bind men together in brotherhood based upon eternal principles, to teach that true men should stand together for the supremacy of good over evil, and to foster the recognition of true merit wherever deserved.

The chapter avidly supports member participation in sports, student government, publications, and particularly scholarship.

Activities of Gamma Tau include dances, hikes, barbecues, and participation in intramural sports.

Gamma Tau has various plans for the future; its main objective is to acquire membership with a national fraternity.

North Carolina Beta Chapter of Kappa Sigma Kappa was chartered on April 12, 1958, becoming the first national social fraternity on campus. During the year the brothers worked together as a team, achieving many outstanding goals. Some of these being: the publication of the Student Directory, participation in the Homecoming Parade, and the promotion of social events on the campus of W. C. C.

Kappa Sigma Kappa takes an active part in all campus activities. During the year, the brothers held many offices, such as Vice-President of the Student Body; Senator; Business Manager of the CATAMOUNT; and various offices in the different clubs. In intramurals, Kappa Sigma captured first place in volleyball and second place in football.

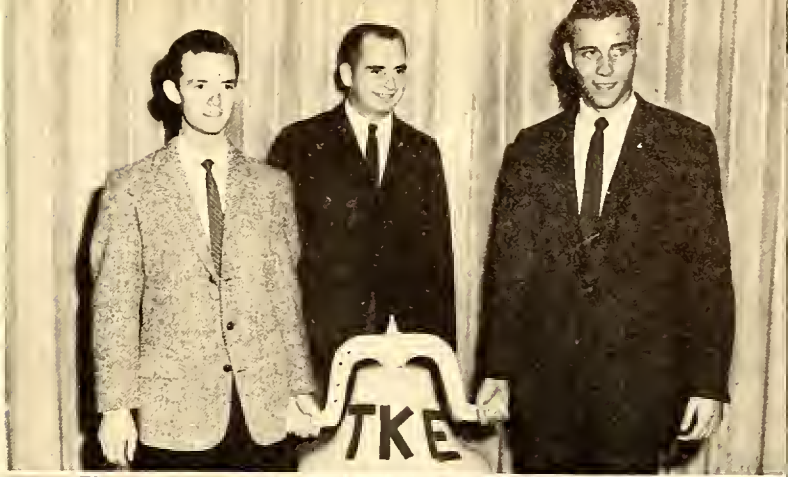
LAMBDA PHI KAPPA



Lambda Phi Kappa Fraternity was founded on October 7, 1957, and on February 27, 1958, was granted affiliation with Tau Kappa Epsilon National Fraternity. The founders established a fraternity of men chosen "not for their wealth, rank, nor honor, but for their personal worth and character."

LPK emphasizes the importance of careful balancing of social activities, scholastic work, and participation in the extra curricular program of the college. The fraternity has prided itself on the interest its members have shown in sports, student government, publications, and above all, scholarship.

Highlights of the LPK social calendar include the Sweetheart Ball, Founder's Day Banquet, and monthly parties. A LPK Sweetheart is chosen each quarter.

On April 4, 1959, LPK will become the second national fraternity on campus, being initiated into Tau Kappa Epsilon National Fraternity.

WESTERN CAROLINA FOOTBALL ON REBUILDING ROAD

By Charlie Smith

(W. C. C. Sports Publicist)

Tom Broadwater goes over for a TD as Olin Sisk clears the way.

The Western Carolina College footballers were in a stage of rebuilding this season and suffered a few mistakes as they learned, but the coaching staff and Athletic Committee of Western Carolina, as well as the many students and loyal followers, firmly believe that the Catamounts, though inexperienced, learned well and in the process of their learning gave their opponents plenty of trouble.

Against the tougher foes, the Catamounts put their backs to the wall and fought hard. Early in the season the Catamounts downed the Appalachian Mountaineers and then went on to tie highly-touted Catawba.

Later in the season, Western Carolina was the subject of a game which will be talked about for years to come in North State Conference history. Against the defending conference champs, Lenoir Rhyne at Hickory, Western Carolina played one of the most terrific games in the history of the school. The Cats led the powerful Bears going into the fourth quarter by a score of 30-14, but Western Carolina had few reserves and the first team, which had played the entire game, was beginning to show signs of wear. The Bears made a tremendous comeback. On a Western Carolina fumble and loss of the ball on an onside kick, the Bears capitalized on breaks to go ahead in the last 52 seconds and win, 36-30.

Jamie Wilkes and Coach Robinson smile after upset win over Appalachian.

Many stars developed in this year's football world from Western Carolina. Bob Cooper, ace quarterback, lived up to his pre-season rating as one of the best quarterbacks in the conference. The agile Cooper was one of the two performers in the conference to pass the 1,000 yard mark in total offense and finished first in punting in the loop.

Jack Spady was tied with Elon's Tony Carcaterra as the top pass receiver in the loop. Ron Aughtry proved to be one of the top two centers in the conference, and numerous others were outstanding at their positions.

Spady, Cooper, Aughtry were All-Conference selections. Co-Captain Gerald Lewis was a second team selection.

The team voted its own superlatives comparable to the senior classes and other campus organizations. Cooper received the most valuable player award from his teammates. Jamie Wilkes was the most improved. Dean Turner was the most under-rated. Cecil Smith was voted best blocker, and Ron Aughtry was the best defensive performer. These five will be returning for another season next year.

Coach Robinson said of the current season, "Our boys were in a learning stage more or less. They learned well and made it rough for their opponents while doing so. We are proud of our team."

Robinson was ably assisted by assistant coach Bob Setzer, who mainly worked with the line. Athletic Director Tom Young assisted with the ends, and Robinson worked with the backs and the overall squad.

This football team brought moments of glory and moments of sadness to the Western Carolina fans but always displayed the colors of purple and gold with the highest esteem.

THE CATAMOUNTS—A TEAM OF TEAMS

By Charlie Smith

(W.C.C. Sports Publicist)

Western Carolina College's basketball team exploded in a flurry of good play with plenty of excitement this season, and when the mist from the explosion finally settled, it was found that Coach Jim Gudger and his Catamount five were proudly wearing the Championship Crown of the North State Conference.

Yes, it was truly a great season for the Western Carolina cagers; in fact, it was the best season in the history of the school.

Not only did the Catamounts sweep through the North State Conference Tournament and capture the Championship, but they also swept through the conference with only two losses to capture the regular season title. Both were "firsts" for Western Carolina basketball, since a W. C. C. team had never won either, much less both.

The Catamount cagers started the season off right—by winning—and they kept this trend up all the way. With such stars as Swede Frauson, Randall Shields, Harris Pryor, Dave Jones, Dave Elmore, and the many fine reserves, Coach Jim Gudger molded the Catamount team into the top small college powerhouse in the two Carolinas. The Cats went into the NSC Tournament top-seeded and were acclaimed winners of the District 26 of NAIA regular season title.

To top all these honors, Western Carolina went a step further in defeating the South Carolina Little Four Champions, Wofford College.

Every W. C. C. starter finished the season averaging in the double figures. All were rated among the best scorers in the conference.

As a team the W. C. C. quint finished fifth in the nation in team defense with a 53.1 average. This is a monument within itself.

As for individual honors, no other North Carolina team received as many as W. C. C.—because the Catamounts had one or two players to fit every situation and to excell in every department.

Swede Frauson and Harris Pryor were All - North - State - Conference selections, and Frauson was a member of the District 26 All-Carolinas team.

Pryor received the highest honor awarded a North State Conference basketball player by being voted the Most Valuable Player award by sportswriters attending the conference tournament. In addition to this, he and Dave Elmore were All-Tournament choices.

In the Western Carolina Holiday Tournament held here before Christmas, Pryor was the Most Valuable Player. Dave Jones and Pryor were All-Tournament choices in this tourney.

Shields and Frauson finished the season as top rebounders in the loop, and Jones finished as one of the top in free-throw accuracy.

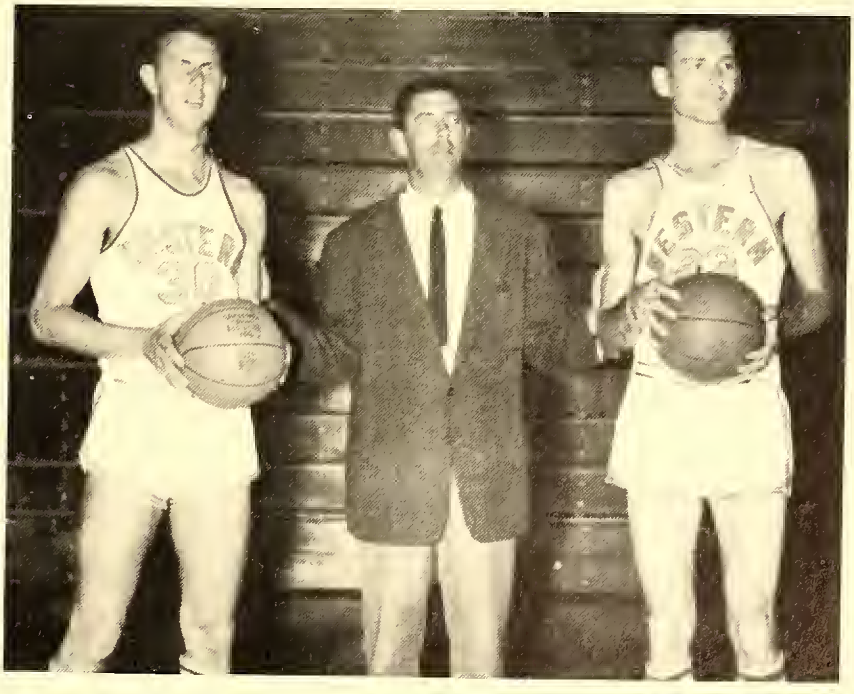
All around, no other team in North Carolina could even compare with Western Carolina's defensive average. It was tops.

Coach Gudger was voted Coach of the Year by the sixteen members of NAIA District 26. This honor is the highest awarded a small college coach in the two states.

The final tournament game at Lexington paired the Catamounts against the Catawba Indians. This game will forever be rememberd by W. C. C. fans and alumni due to the intense excitement and happiness of the affair. Western Carolina won by three points, but a world of memories and excitement rode on each of these three valuable points.

It will take a long time to duplicate the feats of the 1958-1959 Western Carolina Championship team.

North State Conference rebound "kings," Swede Frason (30) and Randall Shields (23) go up.



Frauson (30), Coach Gudger, and Randall Shields (23) relax after hard work out.

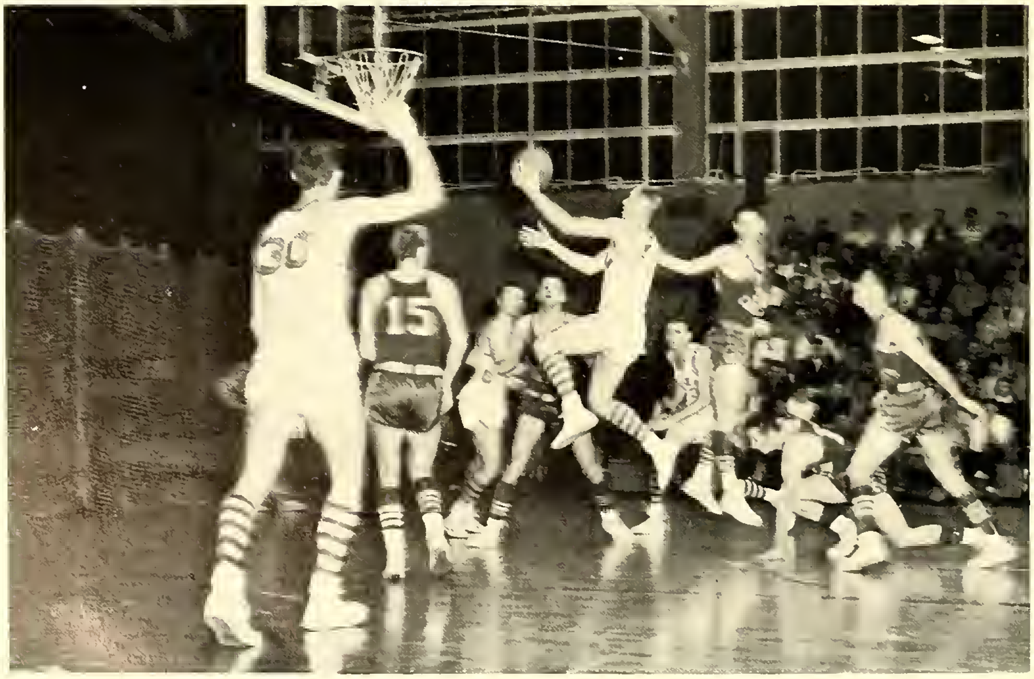
The spoils of war!

Jim Gudger, Coach of the Year.

Eddie Rudeen (11) attempts to block a shot by East Carolina's Gruffy (30); Swede Frauson (30) and Randall Shields (23) set for rebound.

Swede Frauson (30) defends against Lenoir Rhyne's Norman (35) as Dick Whitis (23) looks on.

Frauson scores two as Elon's Gill Watts (31) watches.



Harris Pryor drives in for a lay-up against East Carolina as Swede Frauson stands ready.

"Dibble" sinks another.

Dave Jones (22) goes up for a tip in against Georgetown as Randall Shields (23); Dave Elmore (24); and Harris Pryor stand ready.

THE NAME DOESN'T MATTER . . .

Some People say we should get a new name for it! But whether we call it free enterprise, American Way of Life, or Profit and Loss System, the name doesn't matter as long as we understand that it means hope, decency, courage, dignity and education.

Change the name if you like, but be ever alert against those who would change or destroy the meaning.
